

THE FOLLOWING IS AN EMAIL FROM THE COMPANY'S CHAIRMAN
AND THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER TO THE COMPANY'S EMPLOYEES
ANNOUNCING THE MERGER

June 18, 2007

To Genesco Employees:

As you know, when we announced our earnings last month, we also announced that our board of directors began the formal process of considering strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value. Following a review of various alternatives reasonably available to Genesco, we have announced that we have agreed to merge our company with The Finish Line for a cash purchase price of $54.50 per share of our common stock.

The Finish Line is one of the largest mall-based specialty retailers in the U.S. and currently operates approximately 800 stores under the Finish Line, Man Alive and Paiva brand names. The combined company, which will be called The Finish Line, Inc., will have a total of approximately 2,870 stores across the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico.

I am impressed with what I have learned of The Finish Line's values and their approach to business, which are very similar to Genesco's. The Finish Line has great admiration for our company, what we have been able to achieve, and how well-positioned Genesco is for continued growth. This transaction is not only in the best interests of our shareholders; it also represents the opportunity for Genesco to continue to realize its tremendous potential.

For the vast majority of Genesco employees, this merger will not make a significant difference to your day-to-day life at work. The Finish Line understands that the company's success is due to your talent and hard work and they have made it clear that they intend to preserve our strong team culture. While the new company will be headquartered in Indianapolis, The Finish Line has stated its intention to maintain our operations in Nashville.

Our Board of Directors has voted unanimously in favor of this transaction and our shareholders will be asked to give their approval as well. We anticipate the transaction will close by the fall of this year.

I realize that you will have many questions and concerns, and we will do our very best to keep you informed in a timely manner. I am pleased to invite all Nashville headquarters employees to a meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, June 19, at 10:00 a.m., in the Genesco Park cafeteria to hear more about this transaction and to meet Alan Cohen, chairman and chief executive officer of The Finish Line. We are also planning an employee meeting for Indianapolis on Tuesday afternoon and will provide details when arrangements are complete. This morning's press release is attached. You will shortly receive by email some questions and answers about the transaction and its implications.

Today's announcement is a reflection of our industry-leading position and a direct result of your talent and dedication. Thank you for all you do to make our company a success.

Sincerely,

Hal N. Pennington
