

Genesco Information Security Disclosure

As part of Genesco's commitment to information security, the Company's senior leadership briefs the board on information security matters at least annually. In addition, Genesco has a robust information security training and compliance program that is conducted at least on an annual basis.